

Client: Bank of Ireland

- Demolition of Mayflower Court a brand new timber framed development in Stoke on Trent. The developer had gone into liquidation and the site had been repossessed by the bank.
  - The timber waste was shredded and recycled by being sold on to a local company that processed it for animal bedding
- |             |                |
|-------------|----------------|
| • Sector    | Residential    |
| • Location: | Stoke on Trent |
| • Duration: | months         |
| • Value:    | £60K           |

